

Then, the Native Americans started praying, drumming and singing. They prayed for the spirits of the Native Americans who were killed many years ago when the Europeans took over. They prayed for the fish to come back. They prayed for Gypsy and Judi's spirit. They prayed for the ancient trees.